FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

August 4, 2008

Detectives Need The Neighborhood's Assistance In Finding Suspect

On July 31, 2008, at 4:27 am, Travis County Deputies were dispatched to 4919 Hudson Bend Road, in reference to a disturbance. Deputies met with the complainant and learned that a male subject had entered the unlocked residence and assaulted her. She described the suspect as a Hispanic man in his early twenties with short dark straight hair. He is approximately 5'2" with a husky build. He was last seen wearing blue jeans and a white t-shirt and she said that he smelled intoxicated.

According to the victim, the suspect assaulted her causing injuries to her nose and mouth. He ran from the trailer when she began to scream.

The suspect was also seen running from the area by a neighbor and that neighbor gave the same clothing description, however, he is unable to identify the suspect.

If you have any information on this case please contact Detective Craig Smith at 512-854-3425 or CrimeStoppers at 472-TIPS (472-8477).
