Phone scams are a prevalent and on the rise.

If your neighborhood is interested in a community meeting and/or a neighborhood safety topic, please get in touch with the Travis County Sheriff’s Office. We believe the education and sharing of information is a vital part of keeping our communities safer.

Volunteer Appreciation Ceremony

Volunteer Appreciation Ceremony is recognized nationally to help promote awareness of the contributions and benefits of volunteers and communities they serve. The ceremony is designed to celebrate the achievements of volunteers and provide an opportunity for them to share their experiences and impact on their communities.

TRAVIS COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE

www.TCSO.gov

Phone scams are prevalent and increasing. If you receive a call from someone claiming to be from the Travis County Sheriff’s Office, do not provide your financial or personal information.

Scammers target senior citizens and often use tactics such as:

- Threatening fake arrests
- Demanding immediate payment
- Asking for personal information

If you receive a call from someone claiming to be from the Travis County Sheriff’s Office, do not provide your financial or personal information.

Our staff are trained to handle these types of calls and will only seek payment if there is a legitimate reason.

Retired Teachers Visit

In June, the Travis County Sheriff’s Office had the honor of hosting a group of retired teachers. The teachers were invited to the Sheriff’s Office to learn more about the Sheriff’s Office and the role it plays in the community. The teachers enjoyed discussing criminal justice issues and the impact of education on society. These life experiences provided valuable insights and shared some inspirational stories.

Student Interns

Student interns are vital to our team. They gain the experience required to succeed in their future careers. TCSO has partnered with several universities to offer internships to students.

TCSO Peer Support

TCSO is committed to providing mental health support to our police officers and other employees. We have a Wellbeing Support Team that assists with mental health concerns.

Our staff are trained in de-escalation techniques and are prepared to handle situations that may escalate.

Victims’ Rights

Victims of crime have the right to be informed about the status of their case and to make their voice heard. TCSO staff are trained to handle victim’s rights issues and will provide assistance to victims.

Reya Retirement

Reya, our K9, is retired from the Travis County Sheriff’s Office. The sweet and rambunctious K9 has been serving the community with her service and protection abilities. TCSO wishes her a happy retirement and a forever home.

Travis County Sherriff’s Office

www.TCSO.gov

Phone scams are prevalent and increasing. If you receive a call from someone claiming to be from the Travis County Sheriff’s Office, do not provide your financial or personal information.

Our staff are trained to handle these types of calls and will only seek payment if there is a legitimate reason.

Retired Teachers Visit

In June, the Travis County Sheriff’s Office had the honor of hosting a group of retired teachers. The teachers were invited to the Sheriff’s Office to learn more about the Sheriff’s Office and the role it plays in the community. The teachers enjoyed discussing criminal justice issues and the impact of education on society. These life experiences provided valuable insights and shared some inspirational stories.

Student Interns

Student interns are vital to our team. They gain the experience required to succeed in their future careers. TCSO has partnered with several universities to offer internships to students.

TCSO Peer Support

TCSO is committed to providing mental health support to our police officers and other employees. We have a Wellbeing Support Team that assists with mental health concerns.

Our staff are trained in de-escalation techniques and are prepared to handle situations that may escalate.

Victims’ Rights

Victims of crime have the right to be informed about the status of their case and to make their voice heard. TCSO staff are trained to handle victim’s rights issues and will provide assistance to victims.

Reya Retirement

Reya, our K9, is retired from the Travis County Sheriff’s Office. The sweet and rambunctious K9 has been serving the community with her service and protection abilities. TCSO wishes her a happy retirement and a forever home.

Travis County Sherriff’s Office

www.TCSO.gov

Phone scams are prevalent and increasing. If you receive a call from someone claiming to be from the Travis County Sheriff’s Office, do not provide your financial or personal information.

Our staff are trained to handle these types of calls and will only seek payment if there is a legitimate reason.

Retired Teachers Visit

In June, the Travis County Sheriff’s Office had the honor of hosting a group of retired teachers. The teachers were invited to the Sheriff’s Office to learn more about the Sheriff’s Office and the role it plays in the community. The teachers enjoyed discussing criminal justice issues and the impact of education on society. These life experiences provided valuable insights and shared some inspirational stories.

Student Interns

Student interns are vital to our team. They gain the experience required to succeed in their future careers. TCSO has partnered with several universities to offer internships to students.

TCSO Peer Support

TCSO is committed to providing mental health support to our police officers and other employees. We have a Wellbeing Support Team that assists with mental health concerns.

Our staff are trained in de-escalation techniques and are prepared to handle situations that may escalate.

Victims’ Rights

Victims of crime have the right to be informed about the status of their case and to make their voice heard. TCSO staff are trained to handle victim’s rights issues and will provide assistance to victims.

Reya Retirement

Reya, our K9, is retired from the Travis County Sheriff’s Office. The sweet and rambunctious K9 has been serving the community with her service and protection abilities. TCSO wishes her a happy retirement and a forever home.

Travis County Sherriff’s Office

www.TCSO.gov

Phone scams are prevalent and increasing. If you receive a call from someone claiming to be from the Travis County Sheriff’s Office, do not provide your financial or personal information.

Our staff are trained to handle these types of calls and will only seek payment if there is a legitimate reason.

Retired Teachers Visit

In June, the Travis County Sheriff’s Office had the honor of hosting a group of retired teachers. The teachers were invited to the Sheriff’s Office to learn more about the Sheriff’s Office and the role it plays in the community. The teachers enjoyed discussing criminal justice issues and the impact of education on society. These life experiences provided valuable insights and shared some inspirational stories.

Student Interns

Student interns are vital to our team. They gain the experience required to succeed in their future careers. TCSO has partnered with several universities to offer internships to students.

TCSO Peer Support

TCSO is committed to providing mental health support to our police officers and other employees. We have a Wellbeing Support Team that assists with mental health concerns.

Our staff are trained in de-escalation techniques and are prepared to handle situations that may escalate.

Victims’ Rights

Victims of crime have the right to be informed about the status of their case and to make their voice heard. TCSO staff are trained to handle victim’s rights issues and will provide assistance to victims.