SUBSTANCE USE DISORDER PROGRAM

Like the movements of the turtle, change is often SLOW. It requires fulfillment to those whose lives it affects.

I feel as though it is important to provide inmate populations with letters from Sheriff Hernandez thanking them for their service, as well as letters written by two different ele-

In closing, it is important to note that neither one person nor agency can do it alone. It takes the help of outside

Inmates participating in SUD pre-treatment programming are arrests. Meetings are open to all community members and space for individuals seeking recovery from the addictions and/

The re-entry program here at the Travis County Correctional Complex (TCCC) in Del Valle allows inmates

The hardest thing for her and for most of the mother's, is talking or thinking about their children. For Misty, it

I present to you, Misty's lullaby and I am so proud of the work we did in creating it. Misty was such a joy to work

Every day your donations poured out. After she wrote her letter, I asked her to read it and she did reluctantly. She started tearing up and so I

1. “Traumatic events destroy the sustaining bonds between individual and community. Those who have survived learn

2. “The way we love our children is one of the best ways to love our communities. When we love our children, we are

3. “Good Things Take Time”

As a reminder when volunteers check in at visitation:

1. Connect with us on Facebook

2. angela.blackwell@traviscountytx.gov

3. tommy.mcintosh@traviscountytx.gov

4. lamar.claypool@traviscountytx.gov

5. james.villegas@traviscountytx.gov

Professional Services

The officers need to focus on their the task of checking in the person at the window and expired. Because this is a security measure, there are no exceptions!

By providing classes that promote healthy living and teach them. By providing classes that promote healthy living and classes were just a small contribution on my part in encouraging healthy habits. Everyone has a right to learn and grow; these ages and empowers them to make healthy decisions and create programs: substance abuse classes, anger management, educational assistance, yoga, health and nutrition, job readi-care plans, information about access to medical health care needs in the community and a coordinated assess-

Inmates who participate in programs get the needed tools to leave our facility prepared to forge a new beginning or one on ones with our inmates as well as the resources found in our Community Resource Village. Here at

Inmates participating in SUD pre-treatment programming are arrests. Meetings are open to all community members and

space for individuals seeking recovery from the addictions and/

Continued Partnership with SUD: Grief, trauma, and substance use disorders are also

programs offer a variety of services: substance abuse classes, anger management, educational assistance, yoga, health and nutrition, job readiness, and for those who want it, there are programs offering spiritual guidance.

The re-entry program here at the Travis County Correctional Complex (TCCC) in Del Valle allows inmates

or one on ones with our inmates as well as the resources found in our Community Resource Village. Here at

Inmates participating in SUD pre-treatment programming are

arrests. Meetings are open to all community members and

space for individuals seeking recovery from the addictions and/

Continued Partnership with SUD: Grief, trauma, and substance use disorders are also

programs offer a variety of services: substance abuse classes, anger management, educational assistance, yoga, health and nutrition, job readiness, and for those who want it, there are programs offering spiritual guidance.

The re-entry program here at the Travis County Correctional Complex (TCCC) in Del Valle allows inmates

or one on ones with our inmates as well as the resources found in our Community Resource Village. Here at

Inmates participating in SUD pre-treatment programming are

arrests. Meetings are open to all community members and

space for individuals seeking recovery from the addictions and/

Continued Partnership with SUD: Grief, trauma, and substance use disorders are also

programs offer a variety of services: substance abuse classes, anger management, educational assistance, yoga, health and nutrition, job readiness, and for those who want it, there are programs offering spiritual guidance.

The re-entry program here at the Travis County Correctional Complex (TCCC) in Del Valle allows inmates

or one on ones with our inmates as well as the resources found in our Community Resource Village. Here at

Inmates participating in SUD pre-treatment programming are

arrests. Meetings are open to all community members and

space for individuals seeking recovery from the addictions and/

Continued Partnership with SUD: Grief, trauma, and substance use disorders are also

programs offer a variety of services: substance abuse classes, anger management, educational assistance, yoga, health and nutrition, job readiness, and for those who want it, there are programs offering spiritual guidance.

The re-entry program here at the Travis County Correctional Complex (TCCC) in Del Valle allows inmates

or one on ones with our inmates as well as the resources found in our Community Resource Village. Here at

Inmates participating in SUD pre-treatment programming are

arrests. Meetings are open to all community members and

space for individuals seeking recovery from the addictions and/

Continued Partnership with SUD: Grief, trauma, and substance use disorders are also

programs offer a variety of services: substance abuse classes, anger management, educational assistance, yoga, health and nutrition, job readiness, and for those who want it, there are programs offering spiritual guidance.

The re-entry program here at the Travis County Correctional Complex (TCCC) in Del Valle allows inmates

or one on ones with our inmates as well as the resources found in our Community Resource Village. Here at

Inmates participating in SUD pre-treatment programming are

arrests. Meetings are open to all community members and

space for individuals seeking recovery from the addictions and/

Continued Partnership with SUD: Grief, trauma, and substance use disorders are also

programs offer a variety of services: substance abuse classes, anger management, educational assistance, yoga, health and nutrition, job readiness, and for those who want it, there are programs offering spiritual guidance.

The re-entry program here at the Travis County Correctional Complex (TCCC) in Del Valle allows inmates

or one on ones with our inmates as well as the resources found in our Community Resource Village. Here at

Inmates participating in SUD pre-treatment programming are

arrests. Meetings are open to all community members and

space for individuals seeking recovery from the addictions and/

Continued Partnership with SUD: Grief, trauma, and substance use disorders are also

programs offer a variety of services: substance abuse classes, anger management, educational assistance, yoga, health and nutrition, job readiness, and for those who want it, there are programs offering spiritual guidance.