Sheriff’s Detectives Looking For Burglary Suspect(s)

Travis County Sheriff’s Detectives are working two burglaries of the same business, Speedy Stop at 14735 Bratton Lane. In both cases, the store was burglarized during the night, in the very early morning hours and tobacco products (cigarettes and cigars) were taken, total value is about $950.00.

In the first burglary, on December 31, 2006, a single subject was captured on the surveillance video. The second burglary, on January 25, 2007, appears to involve the same suspect and an accomplice. Both were smash and grab type burglaries.

A surveillance photo, right, is from the first case and shows a male subject with a hood and bandanna covering the majority of his face.

If you have information on these cases or know who the suspect is please contact Sheriff’s Detective Robert Ames, at (512) 854-7407 or CrimeStoppers at 472-TIPS (8477).
