Sheriff’s Office Hosts First Ever Re-Entry Fair

Travis County Sheriff’s Office is sponsoring the first Re-entry Fair from the Travis County Correctional Complex, in Del Valle. It will be held on Wednesday, February 7, 2007, from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. in the Correctional Complex Chapel.

The Re-entry Fair will target those offenders who are returning to the Travis County area and have made efforts at positive change. It will provide the opportunity for community employers, and providers, who specialize in Offender re-entry needs, such as housing, drug and alcohol treatment, employment, health, and other issues, to talk with and provide information about their services.

This is the first time that the Correctional Complex has sponsored such an effort and we are looking forward to working with employers, and providers in assisting offenders reintegrate into the community in a positive way. In other words, to make them successful in society so they will not re-offend.

The contact persons for this event are Captain Art Cardenas, at 854-4181 or pager 935-1065, Charyl Naron, Director of Social Services, at 854-5229 or Kim Conley, R.A.V.E. Counselor, at 854-4180 ext. 35818.

###

Submitted By: Roger Wade, Public Information Officer, (512) 854-4986