Sheriff’s Office Has Field Day With The Texas School For The Deaf

On Thursday, May 3, 2007, from 8am to 3pm, the Texas School for the Deaf, 1102 South Congress will be having a “Ranger Day” for their students at the TSD Baseball Fields.

It’s called Ranger Day and it is a chance for the students to go through different booths to reinforce the different presentations they have seen throughout the year. The Sheriff’s Office has been working with the school over the past year providing monthly presentations for the students. Festivities will start with a 1 mile kids run sponsored by RunTex at 8am.

The Sheriff’s SWAT, Lake Patrol and Traffic Motorcycle Deputies will be on hand and other public safety agencies are invited to attend as well.

This event is for the Texas School for the Deaf kids and not open to the public.

The contact person at the event is Senior Deputy Derrick Taylor.
