Sheriff's Detectives File A Murder Charge On Suspect

On February 1, 2008, at about 4:30 pm, a man called 911 and reported that he had killed his wife in Northwest Travis County.

Sheriff's Deputies responded to the 14100 Block of Joyce Drive along with the Jonestown Police Department, Austin/Travis County EMS, and the North Lake Travis Fire Rescue. Upon arrival the units found the victim,

Lori Langley, Date of Birth 1-25-1964, lying on the ground in front of her travel trailer. She was pronounced deceased at the scene. At the same time other units went to the suspects address at the 14400 Block of Juniper Trail and took him into custody. He is identified as,

Ralph Waylan Langley, Date of Birth 12-10-1959.

Based on evidence at the scene, statements from witnesses and evidence collected by the Travis County Medical Examiner's Office, charges of Murder-Family Violence, Felony 1 were filed on Mr. Langley today.

Note: The maximum punishment for a felony of the first degree is imprisonment in the institutional division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice for life or for any term of not more than 99 years or less than 5 years and in addition to imprisonment, a fine not to exceed $10,000.

This is the first murder investigated by the Sheriff's Office this year.
