FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

February 29, 2008

Person Found Deceased At Home in Southwest Travis County

On February 28, 2008, at approximately 11:55 p.m., Travis County Sheriff's Deputies responded to 3501 Rivercrest Drive in response to a deceased person call.

Upon arrival deputies found that the homeowner arrived home at approximately 11:30 p.m., and could not locate her friend, identified as,

Phillip Lynn, Date of Birth 10-17-1975, whom she had spoken with earlier in the evening. After searching the house she found Mr. Lynn outside lying under a third story deck of the house.

The Medical Examiner's Office was called to the scene and after their examination they stated the preliminary cause of death was blunt force trauma caused by a fall of about 40 feet.

While the investigation continues there is no evidence of foul play.
