Sheriff's Detectives Investigating A Shooting In East Travis County

On May 6, 2008, at 11:59 am, Travis County Sheriff's Deputies were called to 8000 Decker Lane, Building 13, in reference to a shooting. When they arrived they found that multiple shots were fired, one person had been shot and the other person involved had left the scene in a White Ford Expedition. Deputies searched the area and found the vehicle in the 8200 Block of View Ridge Drive.

The injured person was taken to University Medical Center at Brackenridge for treatment of his wounds. He is identified as,

Darryl Herring, Date of Birth 9-26-1981.

He is currently listed in fair condition after being shot two times.

Detectives were able to locate everyone involved in the shooting and were interviewing three people who are witnesses or are directly involved in this case. The cause of the shooting appears to be a verbal dispute between two people.

One person has been charged with Aggravated Assault, Felony 2. He is identified as,

Gary Anderson Gillis, Date of Birth 8-7-1967.

Detectives advise that the investigation is ongoing and other charges may be filed.
