FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: February 25, 2009

Body Found In Northeast Travis County

On February 25, 2009, at about 5am, a person called the Fire Department saying that there was a grass fire in the 6000 Block of Imperial Drive North. At 5:15am the Travis County Emergency Services District #4 responders notified the Sheriff’s Office Dispatch that the fire was an obvious deceased person. Austin/Travis County EMS pronounced the body deceased at 5:27am. Travis County Sheriff’s Detectives and Investigators with the Travis County Fire Marshal’s Office and the Travis Count Medical Examiner’s Office were called to the scene to start the investigation to identify the body and determine the cause of death.

Sheriff’s Detectives and the ME’s Office have determined that the body is a white female, possibly Hispanic.

Anyone with information about this case is asked to call Detective Greg Lawson, at 512-854-3426 or Crime Stoppers at 472-TIPS (8477).
