Sheriff’s Detectives Investigating A Homicide In South Travis County

At about 1:30pm, July 26, 2009, Sheriff’s Deputies were called to the 10300 Block of Old Manchaca Road in reference to a Check Welfare call. Deputies had to force entry into the residence and found the victim deceased inside. Detectives were called to the scene and their initial investigation revealed that the victim’s death was not natural.

The Travis County Medical Examiner’s Office was called to the scene to determine the cause of death and have identified the victim as, Violetta Baczewski, Date of birth 8-7-1954.

Details of the cause of death are not being released at this time, however, detectives are treating this as a homicide investigation.

Detectives are looking for,

Travis Wayne Baczewski, Date of Birth 11-5-1986,

as a person of interest. He is further described as being 6’7” tall and 140 lbs. He may be in a Red Toyota Celica, with Georgia License Plates BAQ 1287, or a 2002 Blue, Infinity I35, with Texas License Plates 1G6953.

Mr. Baczewski should be considered armed and dangerous. Anyone with information about his whereabouts should call 911. If anyone has information about this case, they should call Detective Paul Salo, at 512-854-3245, or Crime Stoppers at 472-TIPS (8477).
