Detectives Investigating Drowning At Lake Travis

On Thursday, October 13, 2011, at 6:56pm, Deputies were called to the Paradise Cove Marina, 17141 Rocky Ridge Road, in reference to a man who fell off a boat in Lake Travis near the marina and was drowning.

STARFlight, Austin/Travis County EMS, Lake Travis Fire Rescue, LCRA and the Sheriff’s Office responded to the scene. When the man was not located Thursday evening, the Travis County Sheriff’s Dive Team was called. The Dive Team dove in the area where the man was reportedly last seen but could not locate him after an extensive search on Friday, October 14, 2011.

On Sunday, October 16, 2011, at 2:57pm, a boater on Lake Travis reported that they found a body floating in the main channel near Paradise Cove Marina in about 50 to 60 feet of water. Deputies along with a Detective and the Medical Examiner’s Office recovered the body from the lake.

The ME’s Office has conducted their initial investigation. The man was identified as;

Dilip Kumar Kanduri, Date of Birth 3-10-1988, of Belton, Texas. According to the Detective there was no indication of foul play and it appears that the man died of accidental drowning.

Note: This is the 8th Drowning on Lake Travis in 2011.
