Sheriff’s Explorer Post Provides Halloween Day Fun For Austin Children’s Shelter

The Travis County Sheriff’s Office Explorer Post 1099 will treat the children from the Austin Children’s Shelter, at 4800 Manor Road, to a day of Halloween fun. They will transform Building B into a neighborhood including transforming the hallway into a street. The children will be able to go from door to door then end up in the gymnasium for fun activities. Planned activities include face painters, clowns and moonwalks. Children from Helping Hands have also been invited to participate in the activities.

Set up will begin at 6:45am, on Saturday, October 29, 2011, and the first children are scheduled to start through the haunted houses and trick-or-treating at 3:30pm.

The contact person for this event is Deputy Derrick Taylor, at 731-5664.
